ARABS KILLED IN HOLY LAND REVENGE RAID

JEWISH DEFENDERS CONFIDENT; WAR TO BE COSTLY

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Jerusalem, Jan. 3 (P)—Members of Haganah, the Jewish militia, announced today that four Arabs were shot to death in a midnight reprisal raid on an Arab stronghold in the bloody no-man's land between Jewish Tel Aviv and Arab Jaffa.

Haganah said British police searched a Jewish house in the area and after police withdrew Arabs fired on the house from a strong point across the street, wounding three Jews. The Haganah raid on the Arab stronghold followed.

The deaths boosted to 523 the number of persons slain in Palestine since the United Nations voted to partition the Holy Land on Nov. 29.

Earlier, a Haganah source asserted that the Jewish defense force is convinced it can take, hold and defend a Jewish state in partitioned Palestine, but that it will take two or three years and will cost many more lives.

No Help Needed

This conviction was disclosed today by a young Jewess who received her training as a Haganah intelligence officer through several years of working in the anti-Nazi undergrounds of Europe.

"We know the Jews of Palestine and of the world are up against the toughest fight they ever had," the Haganah intelligence officer said.

"But we know our chances," she added, "even though the Arabs are getting help from the British now, we are convinced that the Jews can win the fight without help from the outside other than from the Jewish people."

"It may take two to three years of fighting and it will cost us many lives, but we can win it by our own strength."

The main factors in Haganah's optimism, in her opinion, are:

1. Arab resistance to Zionism is economically much more paralyzing to the Arabs than the Jews since the Arab masses live on a day to day basis and one day's interruption of income means a loss of that day's food.

2. The United States can be expected to come to the aid of the Jews by economic pressure on the Arab states.

"The Arab threat of sanctions against the United States," said the officer, "is like a defenseless boy threatening a man with a gun. Arab threats to cut off United States oil concessions means that the Arabs realize the disastrous consequences to themselves should the U. S. cut them off, ending the main sources of national income of such nations as Iraq and Saudi Arabia."

3. The United Nations has no police force and when the British leave—"as we are now convinced they will leave"—the Arabs will be forced to "pit their strength against ours and we are unafraid."

TWO DEAD IN DUEL
Manila, Jan. 3 (P)—A New Year's Eve pistol duel at Tuy, 66 miles south of Manila, was fatal to both participants, Press reports said today. The duelists, Apolonio Gomez and Isabelle Villar, quarreled over the recent national elections. Villar was killed instantly. Gomez died of his wounds.

IN WAKE OF TWISTER—The Rev. R. W. Singleton, pastor of a Baptist church at Shreveport, La., inspects ruins of his church leveled by a tornado which ripped through five states. The death toll was 22.

TORNADO RELIEF FUNDS SPEEDED

Twister Trail Leaves 22 Dead; Property Loss In Millions

Shreveport, La., Jan. 3 (P)—The federal government moved today to help those survivors of the southern tornadoes who already are working busily to help themselves.

This northwest Louisiana area, particularly around Cotton Valley, was classified by the reconstruction Finance Corporation as eligible for disaster relief, thereby making loans for rehabilitation available to victims.

In addition, President Truman late yesterday afternoon directed the Federal Works Administration to make available surplus personal property to state and local governments in Louisiana and Arkansas.

With $100,000 from the Red Cross already on hand and supplies moving into the area from all points of the compass, the devastated area was fairly on the road to recovery.

The tornadoes which hit last Wednesday and Thursday in five states—Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama—left a trail of 22 dead and 250 injured. Property damage was estimated unofficially at $1,500,000 in northwest Louisiana alone.

Cotton Valley, worst hit of the communities, had 13 deaths among its population of 1,500.

Ice-Shackled Detroit Skipped By Blizzard

(By The Associated Press)

Michigan, shacked with snow and ice brought by the winter's worst storm, looked for little relief today (Saturday) as the weatherman forecast low temperatures and cloudy skies.

However, little more snow was predicted for central Michigan, where a snowstorm piled drifts up to 12 inches high, or the Detroit area, covered with a heavy coat of ice.

The heavy snowfall affected a

MEATS MAY BE RATIONED AGAIN

America Will Be Asking For Controls By Spring, Anderson Predicts

Washington, Jan. 3 (P)—Americans will be asking for meat rationing by Spring, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said last night.

He told a radio audience (WOL-Mutual) that he does not know whose job it would be to prepare rationing forms if Congress passes such a program, but he said the agriculture department is preparing to do so if asked.

"I hope we won't have to ration anything except meat," he said. "I believe rationing of this important food will have a strong effect on other food commodities and it will not be necessary to have any other controls."

He added that rationing "must have a general voluntary acceptance to be successful."

Asked about the effect of grain speculation on high meat prices, Anderson said it is hard to tell whether speculation caused high prices for meat, or meat prices encouraged speculation. But he added:

"In my opinion, speculation is not responsible for high meat prices. It is a strong demand that is shooting meat prices up into the stratosphere."

"I do believe, however, that speculation is responsible for the high price of wheat."

STORM REGION GIVEN RELIEF FOR WEEKEND

TEMPERATURES UP IN MIDWEST ICE AND SNOW BELT

By The Associated Press

A week-end of clearing weather for the storm-swept eastern half of the nation was in prospect today as communities whipped by sleet, snow and rain storms worked to restore business and industrial operations to normal.

Snow had abated today in nearly all sections of the country which had been lashed by this winter's most destructive, and crippling storm.

Damages to property were expected to total millions of dollars, while the deaths of at least 16 persons were reported in the New England states and the New York Metropolitan area. Other fatalities attributed to the storm were reported in the Midwest region.

Wire Services Disrupted

The Federal weather bureau in Chicago reported only snow flurries in parts of New England and a freezing drizzle in sections of Ohio and Indiana. There were no indications of new falls of snow or rain immediately throughout the storm belt, which stretched from the Texas Panhandle to the North Atlantic seaboard.

Temperatures in the Midwest and snow and ice belt were expected to rise at or above the freezing mark over the weekend, while they were expected to remain at about normal levels in the eastern section.

Hundreds of communities remained without telephone or light service, which was disrupted by the snapping of wires from the weight of ice or from the strong winds which accompanied the storm. The break in power lines also left thousands without heat or cooking facilities. Railroad, motor and plane travel was disrupted, but was returning to near normal in many midwest cities.

Darkness In Metropolis

New York City, hit by the ice storm, escaped a heavy snow fall as the storm swept out to sea. However, thousands in the metropolitan area suffered the discomforts of darkness and cold from the icy siege which hit the nation's largest city one week after its record-breaking snow fall.

J. B. Rogers, the trainman, said he had started to pull the cord, to signal the engineer just before the wreck which jammed the engine of the second section of the train into the rear pullman of the first.

The conductor estimated the speed of the train at 40 to 45 miles per hour and also said that the block lights were not functioning properly. Earlier an official of the railroad had asserted the signals were working properly.

The wreck occurred during a blinding snowstorm.

Last to be identified among the victims was Cpl. U. J. Hanaway of Astoria, Long Island, N. Y. The identification was made by an official of the railroad after talking with the soldier's mother.

Other victims of the wreck included former ambassador to Spain Alexander W. Weddell and his wife, and Hollywood film director Frank M. Ryan, his wife two sons and a daughter.

Jewelry valued at $125,000 belonging to the Weddell's was recovered from debris of the wreck yesterday by the State Highway Patrol.

The sailing indicated that an agreement had been reached in the "no contract, no work" wage dispute between deck, engineers and radio officers and ship owners, waterfront sources said, but no official confirmation was available. Seven ships have been tied up here 11 days.

Theater Destroyed In Traverse City

Traverse City, Mich., Jan. 3 (P)—Fire destroyed the Lyric theater in downtown Traverse City early this morning with loss estimated by state police at $100,000.

The fire was discovered at 6:04 a. m. The theater, owned by the Butterfield chain, was destroyed but Traverse City firemen kept the flames from adjoining buildings.

A Butterfield official in Detroit said the fire started backstage and burned through the roof, but cause was not learned immediately. The theater seated 1,000 persons.

NEW LEASE FOR EYC IS PLANNED

Revised Agreement For City Property Asked By Council

The terms of a lease granted by the City of Escanaba several years ago to the Escanaba Yacht club were discussed at some length at the city council meeting Friday night and the council authorized the manager and city attorney to meet with a committee from the yacht club and work out a more satisfactory agreement.

Representatives of the EYC attended the meeting and their spokesman, O. V. Thatcher, emphasized that the club is anxious to work in harmony with the council.

Under the terms of the lease now in force, the yacht club is granted the use of the city-owned pumping station for the establishment of a clubhouse at a rental of $1 a year, the lease extending indefinitely to such time as the city constructs a marine building which would include provisions for a clubhouse for the yacht club.

Thatcher reported that the yacht club proposed to spend as much as $15,000 over a period of years to establish a modern clubhouse but emphasized that this expenditure would not be made as long as there was a probability that the city might have use for the pumping station and other facilities at that location for its water system.

Mayor Coon suggested that the present lease does not adequately protect the city in the event that the city needs the property at a later date and proposed that a new agreement be drawn which provides protection both for the city and the yacht club.

It was pointed out that when the lease was drawn, the city believed that its deep wells would provide all the water needed for the community needs and that the pumping station at the Ludington Park, from which water is drawn from Bay de Noc, could be abandoned. Since then, it has become apparent that the deep wells can not provide the volume of water necessary in the summer months.

Under the terms of the lease, the yacht club is required to observe all regulations of the Michigan Liquor Control commission. No formal application has been made for a club liquor license, however.

The republic of San Marino has an area of only 38 square miles.

Register

Approximately $70 was stolen from the cash register at the Coyne Service Garage, 501 Stephenson avenue, Friday night or early Saturday morning.

Entrance was made by forcing a window on the north side of the building. The cash register then was pried open and the contents, estimated at about $70, stolen.

An attempt to break into the Fairmont Creamery was made Thursday night but the attempt failed. A storm window was removed and a pane of glass broken in the window sash. The windows were barred from the inside, however.

Ranger Finds White
Pine Believed To Be U. P.'s Biggest

A white pine tree 13 feet six inches in circumference and 160 feet high, believed to be the biggest white pine in the Upper Peninsula—at least until report of a bigger one is made—has been located near a U. S. Forest Service 80-acre tract in the Rock river valley about three miles north of Eben Junction.

The big pine was found by Ben Hemingway, assistant ranger of the Munising district of the Hiawatha National forest, while timber cruising in the 80-acre tract. Hemingway says without a doubt it is the biggest one he ever saw.

The base was the equivalent of six 16-inch logs tapering up to about a 24-inch top, Hemingway said.

TAX DEADLINE DATE EXTENDED

No Penalty Assessment Before February 15, Council Decides

Extension of the penalty date for the payment of winter taxes to Feb. 15 was authorized by the city council Friday evening. After that date the taxes are subject to a 4% penalty charge.

The council's action means that taxpayers in the city can pay county and school taxes to the city treasurer up to and including Feb. 15 without penalty. After that date the taxes are subject to a 4% penalty charge.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home. Arrangements for the services will be completed later.

Other action taken by the council follows:

Reapointed Mrs. S. W. Brennan to a four-year term as a member of the library board and appointed Dr. Roy Johnson to a four-year term to the library board, succeeding Mrs. Harriet Leiper, who did not desire to be reappointed.

CITY PLANNING BOARD CHOSEN

New Commission Given Broad Powers Under Ordinance

The creation of a city planning commission with broad powers to establish a master plan for the development of Escanaba was tentatively approved by the city council with the first reading of a planning ordinance at the council meeting Friday evening.

The nine-member commission, whose appointments are effective with the adoption of the ordinance at the second reading, are John J. Bartlett, Charles Gessner and Carl Nelson, three year terms; Alex St. Cyr, Grover Lewis and William Warmington, two year terms; John Bartlett, O. V. Thatcher and Dale Vinette, one year terms. Mayor Marvin Coon and Manager A. V. Aronson will serve as ex-officio members of the commission.

A five-man board of appeals, appointed for three year terms, comprises Clint Dunham, Lawrence Jacobs, Arthur Jensen, W. P. Schuldes and Chris Nicholson, with Charles Schmidt, assistant city assessor, serving as ex-officio member of the appeal board.

Members of the planning commission and the appeal board will meet with Elmer Krieger, Milwaukee planning expert, on Jan. 17, when Krieger arrives here for the first of a series of monthly visits. The city has negotiated a contract with Mr. Krieger for a planning survey of the community.

The city's planning commission is being established under provisions of Michigan statutes which define the commission's authority and duties. The commission's actions can be vetoed only by a two-thirds vote of the council, which will require four of the five council votes to override the commission.

Type Union Cited For Violations Of Taft-Hartley Act

New York, Jan. 3 (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board yesterday issued a complaint against the AFL International Typographical Union and five of its locals in New York, Detroit, Chicago and Pittsburgh, charging violations of the Taft-Hartley law in negotiations with some 500 commercial printing firms.

A hearing on the charges was set for Feb. 4 at NLRB offices here. The action, based on the complaint of five employer associations of printers, was announced by John J. Carmody, acting NLRB regional director.

The complaint embraces these accusations:

1. That the locals refused to bargain in good faith, insisting on a contract that would maintain their closed shops are outlawed

NEW COURSE FOR WRITERS

University Of Michigan Extension Reopens On Thursday

The second course in professional writing, sponsored by the University of Michigan extension department, will open at the Escanaba junior high school 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Jan. 8.

Richard Morenus of Escanaba, who conducted the eight-week course in fiction and radio writing last fall, will offer instruction in the short story, magazine article, and advertising copywriting. The copywriting course has been added at the request of local business concerns, which are anxious to have their employees receive training in newspaper and radio advertising.

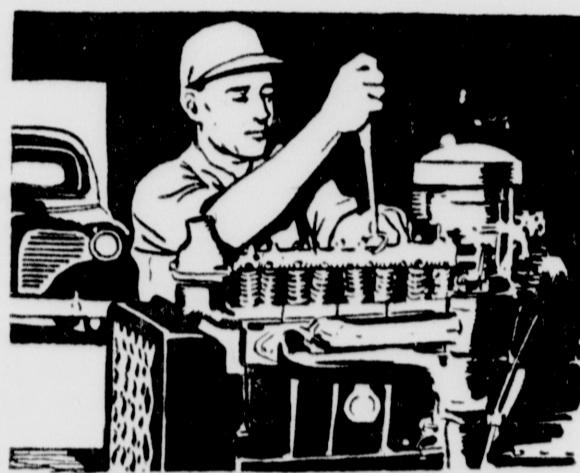

The magazine article course will feature one new fictionalized fact writing style, which is now popular in some of the leading national publications.

The new course will be held every Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, in Room 152 of the junior high school.

New students may enroll at the University of Michigan extension office or at the classroom on Thursday evening. The usual fee will be charged.

Industrial Promotion Succeeds In Wisconsin

Municipal and private subsidization of industry to rejuvenate local business has proved generally successful in Wisconsin.

This is the conclusion of a recent study by the University of Wisconsin. The Association of State Planning and Development Agencies cites the work as one of the first state-wide attempts to analyze long-term results of local industrial promotion. The study involved 130 subsidies in 40 Wisconsin communities from 1930 to last year.

Aid given to "infant industries" directly by municipalities or by private groups with municipal cooperation generally consisted of gifts of buildings, lowered taxes for limited periods, provision of city-owned space at low rents, payment of costs of moving industries from another locality, or outright capital advances.

Subsidy projects termed most successful were the 22 which were "self-liquidating"—they repaid fully the expenditures involved in their subsidization, and "produced substantial benefits in employment, payroll, and taxes to the communities at small or negligible cost."

Two major reasons are behind most industrial subsidization in Wisconsin. One has been the desire of cities to replace employment lost because of previous industrial failures, especially during the depression. The other has been the need to develop new enterprise in relatively non-industrial areas. The decline of lumbering in Wisconsin has been an important factor in many of the promotions studied.

Among self-liquidating industrial promotions were those backing manufacture of shoes, window sashes and electric motors at Wausau and of electric clocks at Delavan. Subsidized shoe factories at Cedarburg, Pulaski and Elkhorn also succeeded notably. So did a fur coat firm at Merrill and a knit goods factory at Fort Atkinson.

Fifty-five other promotions achieved a lesser degree of success, returning enough in taxes to their communities within 10 years to pay the interest on their subsidies. Another 21 projects were "self-financing" over longer periods. Eighteen projects were classed as failures because the industries involved went out of business.

Though generally approving subsidies as a means to stimulate new industry, the study's author qualified his approval in several ways. He pointed out that many of the most successful promotions studied were of recent vintage and were nourished by the war boom. He also raised the question of legality of municipal aid to industry in Wisconsin, and indicated need to re-examine the legal machinery involved.

Standards for sound industrial promotion by localities were formulated. Two major prerequisites were: (1) Selection of industries economically suited to the community in terms of such essentials as labor and materials supply, and transportation costs. (2) Limitation of aid given to the amount necessary to overcome initial handicaps in setting up the industry. If this limitation is not observed, a "sickly" enterprise may be kept alive at the expense of other business and taxpayers generally.

Italian nobles of the 15th Century often bolstered their self-esteem by stamping coats of arms on pavement tiles where passers-by could see them.

Nancy E. Anuta
Is the Bride Of
Geo. Beauchamp

In a beautifully appointed candlelight ceremony this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Menominee, Nancy Ellen Anuta, of Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Anuta, 706 Michigan avenue, Menominee, exchanged vows with George Richard Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Beauchamp, of 1010 Fifth avenue south, Escanaba.

Evergreen branches and poinsettia plants banked the chancel of the church, with two tall standards of gladioli and candelabra holding tall cathedral candles at either side.

The service was read by Rev. David Evans Buzzo of Menominee, and Rev. Earle B. Harris, Jr., of St. Ignace and Mackinaw City.

The bride's lovely gown of ivory satin, which she designed and made herself, was styled with a U-shaped neckline, fitted bodice, marked by a row of tiny satin covered buttons in back, and fitted sleeves with panels of imported French lace extending from shoulder to the wrist, while the same imported lace extended from the shoulders and yoke to the flaring hemline. The bustle-back skirt formed a short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a coronet of the same lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, the bridegroom's gift, and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses surrounding a single red poinsettia.

Attendants Gowned Alike

Her attendants, Janet Grace Anuta, her younger sister, who was maid of honor, and Mrs. Gerald Konkel of Milwaukee, and Eileen Dehling of Wausau, sorority sisters, and Irene Schultz, of Menominee, a life-long friend, who were bridesmaids, wore gowns styled alike, made of deep red velvet, with fitted bodices, deep shoulders and full skirts. Wide bands of velvet extended over the arms to form tiny sleeves and across the front of the bodice. Elbow length mitts of velvet and open crowned hats completed their costumes. They wore single strands of pearls, the bride's gift and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses surrounding a single pale green tulle.

Mrs. Anuta selected a white wool ensemble for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of red roses with it. Mrs. Beauchamp wore dark brown with a corsage of yellow roses.

Philip Beauchamp, only brother of the bridegroom, was his best man and ushers were Charles MacMartin and William Harvey of Escanaba, and Michael Anuta, of Menominee, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Paul Gilbert of Menominee, organist, played the Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches, and Miss Alice MacConaughy, of Iron Mountain, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Reception In Church Parlors

A reception for 250 guests in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a white rayon cloth and centered with green and poinsettias. Miss MacConaughy and Mrs. Philip Beauchamp poured.

The couple following a wedding trip to an unannounced destination will live in Detroit. The bride, a graduate of Carroll college, Waukesha, Wis., and a member of Beta Chi Theta sorority, is a research chemist with the Ethyl Corporation. Mr. Beauchamp, who recently was discharged from the Marine Air Force after four years in the service, is a student at Wayne university.

Christmas Seal
Return Urged By
T-B Association

The 1947 tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale officially closed Dec. 25. However, it is not too late for those who overlooked acknowledging their Christmas Seal letters to make returns, it was emphasized today by Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis association.

"Anyone who comes across an unanswered Christmas Seal letter should remember that by answering it he will help protect his own health and the health of everyone else in the community," Werle declared. "The 1948 tuberculosis control program of the Michigan Tuberculosis association, supported by funds raised in the 1947 Christmas Seal sale, is now underway. Any further returns will quickly be converted into community health benefits."

If electric power is shut off for more than 12 hours, frozen food is endangered. A 50-pound cake of dry ice, which can be bought from ice cream manufacturers, creameries, cold storage warehouses, or dry ice distributors is effective even if its use is delayed 7 or 8 hours, says the Department of Agriculture. Transfer it to a storage compartment. Saw or chip the dry ice into pieces to be divided into the compartments. Place the ice on a board of heavy cardboard set directly on the package.

and Walcott was again recognized as the champion.

Q. What causes an electric spark?

A. A high-voltage discharge through the air. When strong opposite charges are placed near each other, the attraction of the positive charge for the excess electrons—on the negatively charged body—may become too great for the air to withstand. When the air's insulating ability breaks down, a large number of electrons jump the gap between the charged bodies. Collisions between the moving electrons and the air molecules in their path causes the light waves which we call electric sparks.

Q. Who holds the American ski jump record?

A. Torger Toleky, in 1942, jumped 289 feet at Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Q. Is it true that the newly formed Progressive Party in Chicago polled a high number of votes?

A. It polled 313,000 votes for one of its candidates in a judicial election held last month. The total number of votes cast was only slightly more than 700,000. The Party had 21 candidates for public office and tallied 113,000 straight tickets.

Q. Who created the "Order of the Elephant?"

A. Knut VI, of Denmark, in 1189, after his crusade in the East, when an elephant was killed, established this order as a military order. Christian I revived the order in 1458. The corona is of blue moire.

Q. Is Jersey Joe Walcott the only Walcott of boxing fame?

A. From 1901-08, a Joe Walcott held the welterweight championship. In 1904, Walcott lost on a foul to the Dixie Kid, but the decision was disputed. Dixie Kid went abroad, outran his class, plainly.

EWING VELVET

Stitching up a velvet party dress challenges a seamstress' skill but a few tricks from sewing center experts simplify the task. Cut velvet, advise the experts, so that nap runs up and be sure each piece of the pattern is cut so that nap runs in the same direction. Use a fine needle in your sewing machine and lengthen the stitch. Don't make deep hems or double velvet since this will cause fabric to stick. Use taffeta or organdie for facings.

Ship Captain Relates Story Of Hitting Sea Monster In Atlantic

Editor's Note: The following story was written by the captain of the S. S. Santa Clara, Grace Line vessel, at the request of the Associated Press and radioed to New York following the ship's report to the coast guard that it had struck a "sea monster" in the Atlantic off the North Carolina coast.

By J. FORDAN

Master of the S. S. Santa Clara
Aboard the S. S. Santa Clara, Dec. 31—(AP)—(By Radio)—On Dec. 30, 1947, the Grace Line steamer, Santa Clara, was cleaving through sunlit calm blue seas 118 miles due east of Cape Lookout, enroute from New York to Cartagena.

The Santa Clara had just crossed the gulf stream when William Humphreys, chief mate, John Rigney, navigating officer, and John Axelson, third mate, assembled on the starboard wing of the bridge to take the noon sight at 11:55 a.m.

Suddenly John Axelson saw a snake-like head rear out of the sea about 30 feet from the starboard bow of the vessel. His exclamation of amazement directed the attention of the other two mates to the sea monster, and the three watched it unbelievably as, in a moment's time, it came abreast of the bridge where they stood, and was then left astern.

The creature's head appeared to be about two and one half feet across, two feet thick, and five feet long. The cylindrically-shaped body was about three feet thick, and the neck about one and one half feet in diameter.

As the monster came abreast of the bridge it was observed that the water around the monster, over an area of 30 or 40 feet square, was stained red. The visible part of the body was about 35 feet long.

It was assumed that the color of the water was due to the creature's blood and that the stem of the ship had cut the monster in two, but as there was no observation on the other side of the vessel there was no way of estimating what length of body might have been left on the other side.

From the time the monster was first sighted until it disappeared in the distance astern, it was thrashing about as though in agony. The monster's skin was dark brown, slick and smooth. There were no fins, hair, or protuberances on the head, neck, or visible parts of the body.

What Is The IQ Of A Smart Fox? Bounty Hunters Rate Him Average

Legend has it that the fox is so smart that he reads the Encyclopedia Britannica, plays chess, and can outwit his enemies with one paw tied behind his back.

Foxy, sly as a fox, smart as a fox, cunning as a fox—these are some of the expressions derived from the old belief that Vulpes Fulvus rates high in any IQ test. Actually he is just another predator who, hunters and trappers say, is a little easier to take than a coyote or a wolf.

The fact that for a 10-week period ending Dec. 14 there were 8,551 foxes caught in Michigan and presented for the $5 state bounty proves that there are at least that many foxes who are not smarter than the hunters and trappers.

Emil Myrvall of Wilson, a farmer who turns to trapping during the fall and winter months, is one man who doesn't over-rate the intelligence of the fox.

Caught Over 50 Fox

"A fox is just as easy to catch as a coyote," Myrvall said. "They are easier to trap than a wolf, and sometimes I think coyotes are even smarter than fox because there are more fox around my place."

After the bounty on fox became effective Oct. 11, Myrvall in the first month caught 51 red fox and 12 coyotes—all on a trapline only about 10 miles long, round trip. Myrvall uses bait and scent sets before the freeze-up, trail sets after the snow comes.

D. W. Douglass, biologist of the game division of the conservation department, when asked what he thought of the smart fox, replied: "Generally speaking, we believe your Delta county trappers are correct in saying that the fox is over-rated as to its awareness. Our trapper instructors find that persons who have never trapped before, including comparatively young boys, are able to take foxes after a little caution."

Stretching It A Bit

Some of the tall stories about the mental agility of the fox are true and some are rank fiction, but who knows which are true and which fiction has not been trappers and hunters consider it true that a fox will run in intricate patterns in an effort to confuse the pursuing dog. They point out that a rabbit and coyote will do likewise. Fox will travel a stone wall or rail fence, and a fox ledge that do not hold his scent. He also knows other tricks, but by the time the fox practices even a few, the hunter is convinced the fox is smart.

Then the fox will come walking out into plain view, making a good target for the hunter, who considers himself lucky rather than the fox unwary.

The fox is also accused of being so smart he will unearth traps that have been carefully concealed. The trapper forgets that any wild animal is curious, and that the slightest scent may cause a fox to dig out the traps for that reason. Some foxes escape in satisfying their curiosity. Countless others are caught.

As the monster came abreast of the bridge it was observed that the water around the monster, over an area of 30 or 40 feet square, was stained red. The visible part of the body was about 35 feet long.

It was assumed that the color of the water was due to the creature's blood and that the stem of the ship had cut the monster in two, but as there was no observation on the other side of the vessel there was no way of estimating what length of body might have been left on the other side.

Emil Myrvall, the trapper from Wilson, tells of trapping fox this past fall so old "their teeth were all decayed and worn down." As surely an old fox should be smarter than a young one—yet Myrvall catches them.

But if the fox is as smart as he is reputed to be, more of them may be seen within city limits

LOCAL FUR
FARM CLOSESAll Animals Pelts Or

The Nieman - Rockridge Fur Farm, located north of the city on Highway M-94, has suspended operations.

All of the foxes raised there this season have either been pelleted or shipped away and the place is now solely occupied by the caretaker, Max Johnson.

Whether the place will resume operations again, Johnson was unable to state although he was inclined to be optimistic as the farm is too well equipped for fox farming to remain idle for long. A serious drop in the fur market is ascribed as the reason for the shutdown.

The farm operated on a large scale in the many years of its operation and during the past season maintained 655 pairs of breeding stock. More than three thousand cubs were born at the farm last summer, and the fur bearing population there was well over 4,000. This average has been maintained for several years.

Climate and natural conditions were unusually favorable here and some of the finest pelts on the market were produced on the local farm, it is reported.

Fire Destroys
Log Cabin Home
North Of City

A small log cabin, about five miles north of Manistique in the vicinity of the fox farm, was completely destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon and Charles Duell, who made his home there lost all his possessions and in addition was badly burned about the hands and neck.

The fire is believed to have been caused by a defective chimney and the blaze had made much headway when Duell discovered it. A few items of clothing were all that were saved.

He was taken to the Shaw hospital where his injuries were dressed and he is now making his home temporarily at the Henry Miller home.

Penalized by Court
For Killing Dog

Robert A. Schultheis, of Hiawatha township, pleaded guilty in justice court Tuesday afternoon to a charge of "wilfully and maliciously" killing a dog belonging to Niles C. Byers and was ordered by W. G. Stephens, justice of the peace, to make restitution of $25 for the dog, pay a fine of $5 and $5 costs; or spend thirty days in jail. The fine was paid.

According to the complaint, the dog, a Boston terrier, was following a daughter of Mr. Byers while she was on her way to the neighboring home of a relative. The dog strayed over to the Schultheis home and Robert shot the animal. The incident happened on Christmas day.

Dawn Hastings
Becomes Bride
Of W. N. Wood

In a double-ring ceremony performed December 30 in the First Methodist church, Miss Constance Dawn Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hastings, 205 North First street, became the bride of William N. Wood, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, Lake street.

The vows were repeated before the Rev. H. G. Cowdrick at a 7 o'clock service. The church was decorated with Christmas decorations and candles. Traditional nuptial music was played by Mrs. William Mueller, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. H. G. Cowdrick while she sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin princess style gown with a long train, long pointed sleeves, and square trimmed neckline. Her finger-tip veil, edged in lace, was gathered to a crown of seeded pearls. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Grace Wood, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Miss Merle Saiter, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of aqua color, and carried bouquets of yellow and white mums.

The bridegroom's attendants were Don Green, a cousin, and Clyde Scoggins, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Hastings, mother of the bride, wore a wine ruby dress with black accessories, and Mrs. Wood, the bridegroom's aunt, wore a lavender dress with gray accessories.

Sixty guests were present at the reception held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The table was beautifully decorated with a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple as the centerpiece. Tall tapers were placed at either end.

The couple left in the evening on a wedding trip to points in Wisconsin. The bride chose a brown checked wool dress with brown accessories for traveling. Upon their return they will reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique high school, and is employed in the office of the Pulp and Paper Mill. The bridegroom, is employed with the Inland Lime and Stone Co.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hastings of Engadine and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Scoggins of Detroit.

Mr. Wilson will speak from personal experience because he spent four years in Liberia, West Africa, where he worked in the pioneer development of the rubber plantations owned by the Firestone Tire company.

His talk, however, will not be on rubber, but on the country, people and customs of the people of that land created as a homeland for freed American slaves before the Civil war. Mr. Wilson will also have on display articles of handiwork, masks and primitive art in brass.

Miss June Christensen, school music supervisor, will sing a group of numbers.

Hostesses will be Mrs. O. Schuster, chairman; Miss E. Schuster, Mrs. James Fyvie, Mrs. Otto Buelow, Mrs. C. K. Bundy, Mrs. B. Malloy and Mrs. Percy Hollenbeck.

ICE CONDITION SPOTTY ON BAY

Danger Exists For All Except Experienced Ice Fishermen

New ice forming on Little Bay de Noc varies in thickness and for that reason it is dangerous for anyone except experienced ice fishermen — and even they are finding it risky in rushing the winter fishing season.

Jerome VanLandschoot, who returned from Munising to Gladstone for the ice fishing on Little Bay de Noc, fell through the ice off Gladstone yesterday and was rescued by his companions. Fishermen were taking cars out on the ice off Gladstone part way, and then walking to the fishing grounds.

Sheriff William E. Miron warned of the danger today, after Capt. Dan Garrett, in charge of the U. S. Coast Guard lighthouse in Escanaba, reported that ice varied from three inches thick off Escanaba to open water near Stonington. Even ice in the yacht basin is unsafe, Garrett said, pointing out that it was only two days ago that the last fish tug had entered the basin to tie up for the winter. The ice is also weak around the lighthouse crib.

Commercial fishing is now nearly at a standstill, according to Roy Jensen of the Hansen & Jensen fish market. Ice fishing is just starting after the end of open water fishing.

Some fishermen were risking the thin ice today in an effort to recover nets set in open water by boat. Others were beginning to set nets through the ice for whitefish, smelt and suckers.

Ice formed earlier in the northern part of Little Bay off Masonville and cars are being used on the ice there. Elsewhere on the bay the use of cars is dangerous and even walking on the ice may be hazardous because of its spotty condition.

Mrs. R. F. Bellaire Dies in Minneapolis

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 2 p. m., from Kelly funeral home, in Gladstone, for Mrs. Margaret Bellaire, widow of R. F. Bellaire, who died Monday in Minneapolis, at 8:15 p. m.

Mrs. Bellaire, a former resident of Gladstone, was born Nov. 17, 1876, in Alliston, Ont., Can., and died in Gladstone later. After a few years she went to Minneapolis and was married to Osman Draper. Later they moved to Enders, N. D., where Draper died. Mrs. Draper then moved to Minneapolis where she was married to R. F. Bellaire. Mr. Bellaire died in Minneapolis about three weeks ago.

Surviving Mrs. Bellaire are a son, Livingston Draper; a sister, Mrs. Mary Dixon, of Alliston, Ont., and five brothers, Albert and Frank Latimer, of Gladstone, John and Reuben Latimer, of Minneapolis, and Roy Latimer, of Harvey, N. D.

The body will arrive from Minneapolis Sunday and will be brought to Kelly funeral home.

Funeral services Monday afternoon will be conducted by the Rev. Glenn Kjellberg, and burial will be made in Fernwood cemetery.

Switzerland Visa Delayed For Exiled Former King Mihai

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 3 (P)—Former King Mihai, who abdicated the throne of Romania Tuesday, will have to wait over the weekend for a transit visa authorizing him, and his retinue, to cross Austria on the way to Switzerland.

The Austrian interior ministry said Mihai's application had been transmitted to the Allied control council, as required under occupation regulations, but that the section empowered to deal with such applications was closed until Monday morning.

The Communist-controlled Romanian government asked the Swiss government yesterday for the necessary visa for Mihai, his mother and 33 others, but there was believed to be a possibility that their departure might be delayed until Monday or Tuesday, in the event the requests do not reach Bern before government offices close at noon today.

FIRE DESTROYS BEAN ELEVATOR

Loss Close To $500,000 In Morning Blaze At Elkton, Mich.

Elkton, Mich., Jan. 3 (P)—Fire, raging out of control, destroyed the Elkton elevator of the Wallace and Morely Co. early today and officials of the Bayport firm set their loss at close to $500,000.

The hearing was held Dec. 3, 1947, in Newberry, the commission reported. The alternative sentence in case the fine is not paid is suspension of license for an additional 20 days.

State police testified at the hearing that several patrons of the establishment had been found to be in a "hilarious condition," one passed out and another asleep in a booth.

Police said when they attempted to remove the sleepy one, they met with opposition on the part of other patrons. Testimony disclosed that neither of the owners was in the establishment at the time of this incident.

Almon Beaudin, police said, acknowledged having spent very little time in the place since he and his father, Fred, procured it and that he desired to get rid of it as soon as he could find a buyer.

TAFT-HARTLEY CASE IN COURT

First Union Named For Unfair Labor Practice Will Fight Ruling

BY NORMAN WALKER

Washington, Jan. 3. (P)—The first union to be held guilty of an unfair labor practice under the Taft-Hartley act pledged today to "fight the case all the way to the U. S. supreme court if necessary."

Herbert G. B. King, attorney for Local 74 of the AFL Carpenters Union at Chattanooga, Tenn., said he will go the limit in opposing a ruling handed down here yesterday by J. J. Fitzpatrick, an examiner of the National Labor Relations board.

Fitzpatrick held that Local 74 engaged in a secondary boycott, banned by the new labor law as an unfair labor practice, by calling a strike of union carpenters when non-union flooring installers came to work along side them on a Chattanooga home remodeling job.

The filing of unfair labor practice charges was limited under the old Wagner act to those against employers only. The Taft-Hartley law permitted them to be filed against unions, too, for the first time.

In another precedent-setting decision, Federal Judge Stephen W. Brennan issued the first injunction under the Taft-Hartley law at Utica, N. Y., yesterday against Local 294 of the AFL Teamsters Union.

The injunction restrains the local from continuing six alleged unfair practices—including one of so-called "feather-bedding," or requiring an employer to pay for work not performed—until the NLRB here can decide if the local was "unfair."

Local 294 was accused of demanding that the Conway Express company of Pittsfield, Mass., pay the union an amount equal to the wages of a union member as penalty for allowing a non-union member to drive a truck from New Britain, Conn., to Cleveland, O., last September.

Judge Brennan held that Montgomery Ward and company at Menands, near Albany, N. Y., was also entitled to an injunction against the Teamsters Union local on the basis of a charge of a secondary boycott. But the court said it was unnecessary to issue it for the time being because the local was restrained from engaging in secondary boycotts under terms of the Conway company injunction.

Herman Ekberg Of Nadeau Dies

Menominee, Mich.—Herman Ekberg, 74, of Nadeau township, died at 2:10 a. m. Friday in St. Joseph's hospital where he was a patient for only a few hours. A stroke suffered late Thursday caused death.

He was born in Sweden August 30, 1873, came to the United States at the age of 11 and went to Nadeau township 55 years ago.

Survivors are his wife, the former Ellen Mattson whom he married in June 1898, the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Louis Trombley; Mrs. Lyman Pesek of Powers; Mrs. Edward Foster of Daggett; Mrs. Earl Rouse of Niagara; Carl and Miss Ruth Ekberg of Detroit; Mrs. Reuben Perkette of Lena; Mrs. Arthur Howell and Orlie Ekberg of Carney; Mrs. Orville Arnold of Escanaba; 16 grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and a sister in Pennsylvania.

The flames were visible for a distance of ten miles and reddened the sky for nearly the whole area of Huron county. They burned through high power lines running past the elevator, cutting off electric service for several hours to Elkton, Pigeon, Caseville and Bayport.

The fire was discovered at 6 a. m. and was out of control by the time firemen arrived. The fire departments of Bad Axe and Pigeon joined in battling the flames, and kept flying embers from igniting nearby homes.

The elevator was a terminal plant of the company to which beans from other elevators were sent for sorting. Destroyed in the blaze were 2,500,000 pounds of beans, including 1,000,000 pounds of seed beans; 10,000 bushels of grain and a quantity of clover seed.

Wreckage from the flaming structure toppled across nearby Pere Marquette railroad tracks, blocking a one-train freight service between Port Huron and Saginaw. The ruins were still smoldering late this morning.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started in the elevator's picking room, which contained "electric eye" machinery for sorting beans. The elevator was one of the largest in the Wallace and Morely chain.

Because of the storm conditions, The Chicago and Boston stock exchanges also were closed today.

Driving on highways throughout New York state—as well as in most other sections of the area hardest hit by the snow and ice—was hazardous. The falls of snow throughout the entire area varied, ranging from four to 11 inches in some sections of the midwest, while snow on the ground in the eastern Adirondacks measured up to 26 inches. Albany, N. Y., said light snow flurries were forecast today with temperatures generally in the 20's.

IOWA TOWN ISOLATED

The New England area reported 14 deaths attributed to the storm, which was the third in 11 days and added from one to two feet of snow already on the ground. All planes were grounded and highway driving was reported "extremely hazardous".

Ten deaths were reported in Massachusetts and four in Connecticut.

New York and New Jersey each reported one death caused by the storm.

The storm left Burlington, Ia., a community of 30,000 population, isolated except by shortwave radio. Homes have been without light or power since New Year's Eve when the ice and snow storm hit the southeastern Iowa City. About 40 smaller southeastern Iowa communities still were without telephone service.

The Pittsburgh metropolitan area escaped the serious effects of the storm, and plane service was restored after 24 hours. But throughout Pennsylvania widespread damage was reported and highways were glazed. A light snow fell in eastern Pennsylvania yesterday and in parts of Ohio last night.

Telephone linemen worked to repair broken power lines throughout Illinois, where damage to telephone equipment was estimated at $1,200,000 by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

Rising temperatures were forecast for the Detroit area giving hope for an early melting of the ice which covered highways throughout Michigan. The snowfall in Michigan measured seven inches. Highways in Indiana remained icy while recent heavy rains have sent the Wabash and White Rivers and their tributaries to flood stage.

PLAY HANGING FATAL

Pinconning (P)—Twelve-year-old Samson Smith accidentally strangled himself Friday while playing "make believe" hanging. His feet slipped after he had adjusted a rope around his neck and he died with his two younger brothers and a sister could save him.

The dead woman is Miss Martha Bidwell 26, daughter of Mrs. Sarah B. King of (1497 Boston Blvd., West) Detroit and the late Paul H. King, former U. S. district court referee.

A will, written Wednesday and found at her home here, requested that her divorced husband, Dalies Erhardt Frantz, a noted pianist, be notified, reported Police Chief J. W. Jordan.

Lewis L. Bredin, Michigan racing commissioner, was named in the will as heir to Miss King's personal and real property, the officer reported.

Escanaba Club Enters Five Ski Jumpers In Madison Meet Sunday

The Escanaba Ski club will pass another milestone tomorrow afternoon when five competent ski jumpers will ride for the local organization in the sanctioned Blackhawk Ski club jumping meet in Madison, Wis.

John Grodesky, son of Mrs. Lorraine Grodesky, 211 Ogden avenue, Escanaba, is the senior member of the Escanaba Ski club jumping team. He has been jumping in competition since 1941 but has been on speaking terms with skis since he was 10 years old.

All of which indicates that Grodesky is no Johnny-come-lately to the sport that has captured the fancy of thousands of sports fans throughout the nation, but his parent organization, the Escanaba Ski club, is going into it in a big way for the first time this season.

Other members of the team are Walter Alexander, Munising stylist; Ted Belfry, Kenneth Warner and Reno Kinninen, Munising riders who will compete for the Escanaba Ski club this season. All have competed in sanction meets before and are capable performers.

Yankees, DiMaggio Begin Salary Talk For 1948 Contract

New York, Jan. 3 (P)—The New York Yankees and Joe DiMaggio have opened negotiations on the salary the star outfielder is to receive for the 1948 season.

But just how far apart they are at this point can only be a matter of conjecture. Both parties have agreed to maintain a strict silence until a final agreement is reached, club secretary Arthur (Red) Patterson said yesterday.

Patterson admitted negotiations were underway in replying, in a statement from the Yankee offices to a report that DiMaggio was demanding $75,000 for his 1948 contract.

"The Yankees," said the statement, "do not deny that they have entered into contract negotiations with DiMaggio and others. It has been mutually agreed by DiMaggio and general manager George Weiss that no publicity will be given on any details. The Yankees therefore, have no comment to make on reports mentioning specific salary terms."

"Contracts are being forwarded to some players on the Yankee squad. Others, who plan visits to New York, will discuss terms personally with the general manager."

DiMaggio, winner of the American league's most valuable player award for 1947, is in town for the holidays. He concurred in the announcement that his negotiations with the club would be conducted in secrecy. When he accepts terms, the club will make the announcement.

Most baseball men believe the big fellow will be satisfied if he can get somewhere close to $60,000. He received $42,000 last season.

Bowling Sidelights

The Classic league completed its first half schedule this week with the Clairmont Transfer team coping first place with a record of 28 wins and 18 losses, in spite of a two game loss to the Liberty Loans. Augie Gafner with 594 and Swede Nelson with 593, led the Clairmonts.

The runnerup L & L's made a determined bid for a tie with the leaders as they swept their three game set with the Elks, but fell one game short in the final standings with 27 wins and 19 losses.

After losing the opener, Stegath's roared back to take the final two games from the Papermakers although they were forced into an extra frame to break an 818 deadlock in the second. They hit 928 in the finale.

The torrid race for the City league championship enters its final week with a seven team scramble for the crown. Only the Forest Service team can be counted out of the show, and even they rest only four games behind the league co-leaders, Wilkinson's and Johnston Printers, each with 21 won and 18 lost. Following one game behind are the U. C. T. Srs. and Maytag Sales, and the C&NW 400's, City Drug and U. C. T. Jrs. are two games back. After the struggle is over next Monday evening, any of the first seven teams could be on top, although a tie is quite likely to develop.

Wilkinson's claimed sole possession of the top rung for the past month but were dropped into a tie with the Printers through a double loss dealt them by the U. C. T. Jrs. With Hank "Fireball" Naumann leading the way with 538, the Printers handed the Srs. a 2-1 lacing to soar to a first-place tie.

Another photo-finish is anticipated as the Escanaba league completes its schedule tonight. Present standings reveal the Padres have regained first place from the Farmers Supply, but their one game margin is anything but comfortable as the teams head into their final evening of play.

We have been supplied with an interesting clipping about the exploits of Bill Kelly, one of Escanaba's standout bowlers for many years. This clipping appeared in the Escanaba Daily Press during the 1940 bowling season.

A physical handicap has prevented Bill from participating in his favorite sport for the past few years, but his 730 series is rated the highest ever bowled in Escanaba.

The clipping reads: "Bill Kelly, bowling for Gene's team against the Taverns in Escanaba, league competition, posted one of the best marks ever turned in here—possibly an all-time high for local league competition."

"Kelly on Monday night blasted the pins for 240, 288 and 202—730. His 288 was one of the nearest local approaches to a perfect game in league competition."

Unless other information is supplied Bill, your record is the highest established on the local alleys and the one the boys are all aiming for. We regret that you are unable to complete with your old mark.

Harry Gafner registered the second highest game bowled on the Elks Club Alleys this season last Friday when he shot a 247. Previously Phenix Benard rolled 275 to claim the top score.

SHORT SHOTS . . . Joe Orlando's 173 average is tops in the Tri-County . . . Earl Therreault of the L & L's hurled a near triple-cate last night with scores of 168-169-170 . . . "Winkie" Curtis blasted a first game 244 at the Elks this week . . . Arcade Pinsetters have entered their team in the Tri-County league to fill a vacated spot . . . They are known as "Harry's Boys" . . . Effective next Monday all leagues will resume their schedules, many of which were cancelled for the holidays.

HAWKS PLAY LEAGUE OPENER — This rugged crew is the Escanaba Hawk Hockey club which will open the Upper Michigan Amateur Hockey league season against Manager J. A. Morrison's Newberry sextet in the state fairgrounds indoor rink here Sunday afternoon. The opening faceoff will be at 3 p. m. The Hawks have two warmup victories over Gladstone to their credit. Front row, left to right, Carl Eastman, John Gorenchan, Bud Hanson, George Gerow, Dan Belanger and Dudley Paquette. Second row, left to right: Robert Kennedy, Clinton Marenger, Robert J. Grabowski (manager), Ernie Belanger and Robert Reynolds. Third row, left to right: Jack Pratt, George Petaja, Raleigh Taylor, Waino Petaja and Lollie Rose.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS "It Seems To Me"

BY HM WARD

CUFF NOTES: Jack Kramer's press agent may not be good, but he's loud . . . After absorbing three defeats in four matches with Bobby Riggs, Kramer is quoted as saying: "I believe I can lick anybody in tennis and that includes Riggs" . . . Somebody give him a stick.

John Grodesky, Escanaba's prime contender for ski jumping fame, first became interested in the sport when he saw the big boys jump in Ishpeming while in his early teens . . . He returned to Escanaba all pepped up and has been jumping ever since . . . Last season, he competed in Iron Mountain, Ironwood, Coleraine, St. Paul, Manistique and Caspian . . . Ten meets are on the schedule this season . . . Grodesky and four transplanted Munising teammates will represent the Escanaba Ski club all season.

"We're glad to have the Munising jumpers with us," Grodesky said yesterday before leaving for Madison. "They had a tough break. All of them came back from military service to find their club disbanded and no ski hill. So this year they'll ride for Escanaba. You have to be a member of a sanctioned club to compete in a sanctioned meet."

Well, it's happened! . . . The AP is polling all its member sportswriters to determine the I. College football team of the nation . . . The final official poll was held Dec. 6, Notre Dame winning, 1,410 points to 1,289 for Michigan in second place . . . Since then, however, the Wolverines walloped Southern California in the Rose Bowl with considerable ease, 49-0, against Notre Dame's 38-37 triumph over the Trojans . . . And appears fairly conclusive that Michigan could have piled up an even greater score, had Crisler pulled out all the stops.

Because Michigan has greater reserve strength, greater deception, more clever ball handling, better timing and more versatility, we cast our vote for Michigan . . . Notre Dame's first team against Michigan's first team might be a battle royal, but Crisler's respective offensive and defensive combinations are as close to football perfection as possible . . . Michigan would win over 60 minutes of free-substitution football.

The Brownson son of Bull Lea drafted fourth in a field of five until the halfway mark in the six furlong test, moved to within five lengths of pace-setting Mangohick at the stretch, and won the race by a length and a half.

The victory boosted Armed's earnings to $763,700—putting him $52,360 behind Styline for the world's record earnings by a race horse.

Ole Miss Quarterback Bobby Oswalt topped the Southeastern Conference last season in extra point totals, making good 26 of 37.

Bowling Notes

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Jan. 3 (P)—When the National Collegiate A. A. bigwigs start their discussion of the "purity" code next week, somebody is bound to point at the Pacific Coast conference's Rose Bowl record for the past three games and say, "Look." . . . Those three shellackings the Westerners have taken probably stem directly from the celebrated "athertonizing" of the conference . . . Football declined everywhere during the war, but due to intensive application of the "purity" idea, it hasn't made a comeback on the Pacific slope . . . At the other extreme, the college baseball coaches will continue their effort to bring a little less purity into their game. Their complaint is that the professional clubs grab every boy who isn't obviously a strict amateur.

Week's Worst Gag

Trove Svendsen, Tulane U. baseballer, served as "King Nor" the children's monarch, in the New Orleans Mardi Gras pageant at the age of 12, leading a 75-foot parade down Canal street . . . Now 22 years old and 6-3½ in height, Svendsen still has to take it when needlers call him "King Troye" . . . That, of course, is the Helen of Troy.

State to Honor Its Wolverines

Lausin, Jan. 3 (P)—The victorious return of the University of Michigan football team to Ann Arbor Monday had official recognition today as Governor Sigler set the day aside as "University of Michigan gridiron day."

The proclamation, ordered by the governor from Tucson, Ariz., where he is vacationing, was released yesterday by the executive office.

The proclamation said the 49-0 victory of the Wolverines over the University of Southern California in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's day made the Michigan team "unequalled by any other football team in the

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

Game Marks Inaugural Of U. P. Amateur Puck Circuit

Anticipating the largest crowd ever to see a hockey game in Escanaba, the Escanaba Hawks will square off in the indoor rink at the state fairgrounds Sunday against a strong Newberry sextet in the opening game of the newly-organized Upper Michigan Amateur Hockey circuit. The opening faceoff will be at 3 p. m., Escanaba.

Considerable interest has been shown this season in the serious-minded Hawks, who quietly and efficiently have purchased brand-new flashy black and white uniforms, procured a bus of their own, practiced diligently, won two exhibition games and are now ready for the league inaugural.

That they deserve wholehearted commendation support after this commendable pre-season groundwork goes without saying. They are determined to make an excellent showing in the new league and, if at all possible, to win the league championship and the U. P. title that slipped from their grasp last season by a slim one-goal margin.

Manager Robert J. Grabowski expressed confidence yesterday that not only dyed-in-the-wool hockey fans but all sports fans will give the team plenty of support this season. He predicted that the largest hockey crowd in Escanaba history would be on hand tomorrow to see his Hawks tangle with Manager J. A. Morrison's Newberry sextet.

After racking up two warmup victories over Gladstone, 2-0 here and 3-1 there, the Hawks whipped through their final pre-game practice session on the outdoor rink last night and pronounced themselves ready for Newberry. Hawk stars will be George Gerow, goalie; John Gorenchan and Carl Eastman, defense; Dudley Paquette and Dan Belanger, wings, and Bud Hanson, center.

Chicago, Jan. 3 (P)—Illinois' point-a-minute basketball team, which has averaged 64.8 points per game in seven victories to remain undefeated, travels to Madison tonight to tangle with Wisconsin in the No. 1 opening contest of the Big Nine title scramble.

The only other conference engagement tonight sends Northwestern, with a 1-4 record, to Ohio State.

The Buckeyes, a sophomore and the youngest in the circuit, have beaten Marquette, the world's second ranking money-earning thoroughbred, began his 1948 campaign to overtake Styline's most-money-earned title yesterday at Gullstream Park by easily winning the $3,500 Galileo prize in a spectacular driving finish.

The Brownson son of Bull Lea drafted fourth in a field of five until the halfway mark in the six furlong test, moved to within five lengths of pace-setting Mangohick at the stretch, and won the race by a length and a half.

The victory boosted Armed's earnings to $763,700—putting him $52,360 behind Styline for the world's record earnings by a race horse.

Ole Miss Quarterback Bobby Oswalt topped the Southeastern Conference last season in extra point totals, making good 26 of 37.

Harry Says:
All league games will be resumed Monday.

DARTBALL SLATE

The schedule in Escanaba commercial dartball league for next week follows: Tuesday night—Gladstone at Firemen (No. 2 fire hall) and Escanaba Daily Press at Immanuel Lutheran church. Starting time is 7:30.

HARDWARE AT MUNISING

The Escanaba Hardwares, taking a respite from their NWM Basketball league chores, will play a non-loop affair in Munising tonight against Cox Chevrolet. The Hardware cagers will leave from the Denver hotel at 6:30 this evening.

The victory "showed that Michigan leads in this field as in so many other fields," the governor added.

Special Poll To Decide Between U-M And Irish

New York, Jan. 3 (P)—The Associated Press is polling sports editors of its member papers throughout the country to help settle the argument as to which is the better football team—Michigan or Notre Dame.

The AP's final poll of the top ten teams, released Dec. 8 at the conclusion of the regulation season, resulted in Notre Dame winning first place with 1,410 points. Michigan was second with 1,289.

While the latest poll—which will be released to afternoon papers of Tuesday, Jan. 6—will not supersede the regular season-end poll, it is intended to serve as a final summing up of opinion on the two teams.

Each paper is to ballot on which team it likes—as of now—Michigan or Notre Dame.

POLL TAX TRIED HERE IN 1883

Old Ordinances Reveal Some Of Early Problems

Many changes in ordinances and regulations established by the Escanaba city council have been made over the years to the extent that few local residents recall the days when a poll tax was assessed in this city.

Such tax was instituted in 1883, when the council adopted a poll or capitation tax of one dollar upon every male inhabitant of the city between the ages of 21 and 50. Only persons exempted were members of the fire department (but not the policemen), members of Michigan State troops and disabled veterans of the civil war, referred to in the ordinance as the "war of the rebellion".

Just how long this tax was in effect is not indicated but it was on the ordinance books for at least a dozen years. It may be assumed that Escanaba's experiment in collecting the tax reached no greater success than has been experienced by other governmental agencies in that attempted to raise money by means of a poll tax. The State of Michigan tried it in the early 1890's without success.

Ladders For Fires

For many years Escanaba householders were required to keep on hand one or more ladders of sufficient length to permit firemen to reach any part of the house in event of fire. Failure to possess such a ladder brought a fine up to $25 plus costs. This ordinance was adopted in 1884 and was in effect for many subsequent years.

Saloons Closed at Noon

The traffic problem may have been intensified by the development of the automobile but there was a traffic problem in Escanaba back in the early days, too. The ordinance book of 1883 revealed a speed limit of five miles per hour for all vehicles operated in the city. The need for liberalization became evident and the speed limit was raised to six miles per hour a few years later.

Saloons, now called taverns, were open from six a. m. to 11 p. m. in those days. Drinking establishments now are open to two o'clock in the morning, with an additional half hour allotted for patrons to leave the premises.

Although the disorderly conduct ordinance then in effect fails to mention the use of profane language by adults as an illegal offense, profanity by boys was strictly prohibited under the law. Offenders were required to pay a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding 30 days. Under present state laws, juveniles cannot be lodged in county jails that lack provision for segregation of minors.

Incidentally, all prisoners sentenced to jail under the city ordinance were required to be assigned to hard labor during the period of their confinement.

Scavenger For Health

To maintain the highest degree of community cleanliness, the city council in 1902 established the office of city scavenger, outlining his duties and authority. He was assigned the job of removing filth, garbage and rubbish from the streets and alleys. He was granted authority to go into public or private buildings to perform his duties and anyone interfering with the city scavenger's performance of duty was liable for a fine or imprisonment, or both.

In 1886 a water franchise was granted to C. A. Lamb and H. E. Keeler to operate a water works system in Escanaba, at rates specified by the council. The annual rates included the following: banks with one basin, $15; barber shops, $6 for first chair and $3 for

OCONTO HAS LARGE FIRE

Business Area Periled
By $150,000
Blaze

Oconto (AP)—Firemen from two departments battled six hours Thursday to subdue a raging blaze which for some time threatened to destroy the entire business district of this north-eastern Wisconsin town.

Fire Chief John Reed estimated the loss at between $150,000 and $200,000, which included destruction of the two-story brick building occupied by the Ulspurger drug store, the firm's entire stock and two second floor apartments.

The blaze, which Oconto firemen fought with the assistance of the Marinette department, also damaged eight other commercial establishments in one block of main street.

Student Gives Alarm

John Wiebusch, a St. Norbert College student, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiebusch, occupy an apartment over the drugstore, discovered the fire about midnight. He roused his parents, who escaped in their nightclothing and turned in the alarm. The occupant of the other apartment, Mrs. E. J. Ullspurger, was not at home.

The storm which lashed most of southern Wisconsin during the night by-passed this area, so firemen were not handicapped by the elements. The temperature was about 18 degrees, with no snow. The fire was pronounced under control about daylight today.

Damaged by smoke, water and fire were the quarters of the Daily Reminder, a newspaper; the Bourassa and the Davis insurance agencies, the Megan law office, the Marquita beauty shop, Vateria cleaners, the American Legion club and the Horner barber shop.

Chief Injured

Oconto Fire Chief John Reed suffered a severely gashed right hand during the fire when he attempted to move a hose line through a shattered window. He was taken to Oconto hospital for treatment but refused to stay and returned to direct operations.
